Vienna, December 22.

THE Malecontents of Hungary have not only expell'd all Jeſuites out of the Kingdom that are Forreigners; but have begun to baniſh likewiſe thoſe of that Society that are Natives: Whereupon the latter have wrought upon the Roman Catholick Hungarians of the 6 Diſtricts of Presburg, Neutra, Trentſchin, Liptau, Thurocz, and Arva, to addreſs to Prince Ragotski the following Petition and Proteſtation againſt their being expell'd the Kingdom.

The Petition and Proteſtation ſent by 6 Diſtricts of Hungary to Prince Francis Ragotski, touching the Expulſion of the Religious of the Society of Jeſus out of the Kingdom of Hungary.

Tranſlated out of the German Tongue.

IT being evident that the true Roman Catholick Faith is expos'd to a terrible Shipwreck in the Apoſtolick Kingdom of Hungary; we are oblig'd in Conſcience to declare, that we cannot ſuffer the intollerable Thoughts of it any longer; and therefore we do repreſent unto you, though againſt our Inclinations, our juſt Grief, in pious, but alaſs doleful Complaints.

We are not only inform'd by others, but are ourſelves Eye Witneſſes of the Miſeries of the venerable Clergy of the Society of Jeſus, who were firſt ſent hither as Miſſionaries, but were afterwards receiv'd into the Boſom of this Kingdom, and eſtabliſh'd by a National Decree, for the Inſtruction of Youth in Piety and good Manners; and their laudable Society growing in Proceſs of Time more numerous, by reaſon of their Poſſeſſions, which they acquir'd by honeſt Methods; they were further ſettled by the Authority of a General Diet held for that End: But notwithſtanding this, not only ſuch of that venerable Society who are born of Forreigners, have been forced to depart out of this Kingdom; but alſo ſuch who are Natives of this Kingdom, and whoſe Anceſtors were Men of great Deſerts, will be compell'd to quit their dear native Country, as Criminals, (though they have not been convicted according to Law,) on Pretence of having kept dangerous Correſpondence with foreign Nations, and on other groundleſs Imputations, which are contrary to their ſevere Eccleſiaſtical Maxims and Rules. This troubles our Souls and cuts our Hearts, ſince it will tend to the palpable Prejudice of Religion, the Defamation of holy Mother Church, the Subverſion of the Conſtitutions of the Kingdom, and the Decreaſe of the Roman Catholick Faith and Intereſt, to baniſh ſuch faithful Preſervers of the Apoſtolick Churches, ſuch zealous Propagators of the true Faith, ſuch painful and learned Preachers of the True Word of God, and ſuch excellent Inſtructors of Virtues, Sciences and Arts. While on the other Hand ſuch as are of the Confeſſions of Augsburg and Switzerland, are uſed here with the greateſt Lenity, though they are born of Forreigners, and are permitted to exerciſe their Religion; from whence this Conſequence will be unavoidable, that for want of the abovenamed Preſervers and Teachers (who are free from Hypocriſy,) many thouſand Souls will be expos'd to eternal Danger and Miſery, and the Inſtruction of Youth will be neglected.

And it being highly neceſſary to prevent ſuch Undertakings, which are prejudicial to the Honour of God, and the Rights of Holy Mother Church, and that the Roman Catholicks may not be depriv'd of their ſpiritual Conſolation and Welfare, and young Perſons of their experienc'd Teachers, which will expoſe them to Idleneſs and a diſſolute Courſe of Life.

Therefore we beſeech you, as a Father of the Country, (who we hope has as great if not a greater Concern for the Intereſt of Religion, then the temporal Affairs of the Kingdom,) and Conjure you by every thing that is Sacred, that you will vouchſafe to maintain the abovenamed Religious of the Society of Jeſus in this Apoſtolick Kingdom, purſuant to the Decrees formerly made in their behalf.

But in caſe of Refuſal, we proteſt ſolemnly againſt your Proceedings herein, yet with all due Veneration and Humility, and without derogating from your Authority and that of the States of this Kingdom in Civil Affairs; and declare that we cannot ſuffer the Baniſhment of the Religious of the Society of Jeſus (at leaſt of ſuch as are Natives of this Kingdom) as being contrary to the Rights of Holy Mother Church, and the unalterable Decrees and Conceſſions formerly granted to them; nor can we permit, that they ſhall be depriv'd of their Poſſeſſions, and Endowments. And we do hereby except ourſelves from the heavy ſpiritual Excommunications, which formerly, upon the like Occaſion, have been publiſhed in Favour of the forenamed Society by the Heads of the Church, namely the Popes of Rome; and laſtly we repeat our Proteſtation without Fear in the Preſence of Almighty God, the holy Angels, and the whole Chriſtian World; and remain Your Moſt faithful Servants, the Catholick States of the Diſtricts of Presburg, Neutra, Tren.ſchin, Liptau, Thurocz, and Arva.

Liſle, Jan. 2. The Elector of Cologne, Biſhop of Liege, was made a Deacon, on the Feaſt of the Conception of the Virgin, by the Archbiſhop of Cambray, in the Church of the Recollects of this City. On Chriſtmas Day he was made a Prieſt in the Church of St. Maurice; and Yeſterday being New-Year's Day, he celebrated his firſt Maſs in the Church of the Jeſuites. The Elector of Bavaria his his Brother, who came hither with a numerous Retinue from Mons, was preſent at this Ceremony, as were alſo ſeveral Canons who came from Liege on purpoſe; and his Electoral Highneſs of Bavaria receiv'd the Communion from the Hands of his Brother. The Jeſuites, who affect to diſtinguiſh themſelves on all ſuch Occaſions, ſent their Scholars to attend the Elector of Cologne from his Lodgings to the Church; they made a numerous Cavalcade, and were dreſs'd ſome like Switzers, ſome like Grenadiers, and others like Huſſars; and after the Service was over, they attended him back agen to his Lodgings. He gave a great Entertainment; the Cannon on our Ramparts were fir'd ſeveral Times; and in the Evening there was great Rejoycing in ſeveral Places of the City.
